First, A Few Kind Words

This book is dedicated to those who are searching for the truth.

Over the years, I have had the pleasure of spending many hours in conversation with the author of this book. I have come to know Howard Riell, as a good and honest friend that has a keen and insightful talent for searching out the truth.

Please, listen to Howard on his talk show Riell Truth heard daily on KHNC 1360 AM and read this timely and insightful book, you will learn the Truth, the Real Truth.

Have you ever wondered why, with no physical proof or tangible evidence to support them, so many conspiracy theories abound? Americans seek to know the real truth.

In this book, you will explore the overwhelming and profound truths that are considered by many to be the meat and potatoes by which all conspiracy theories have been formed.

When our personal observations do not match up with the public story line...

When the relevant facts do not support the public story line conclusions...

When logic dictates that an alternate conclusion is highly probable...

First, A Few Kind Words

When the margin of error is too great to support the conclusions that we have been given...

When vital evidence, facts, or testimony have been withheld from the public or discussed by those who actually had the facts, saw the evidence, or gave the testimony that clearly was in opposition to the public story line...

When a well developed theory supports or defines an alternate conclusion, other than the public story line, the public story line comes under suspicion as a possible conspiracy.

Why is the term Conspiracy Theory immediately applied to the new alternative story line by our public leaders?

The American public has the right to speak out, search for, and know the truth.

In these pages you will discover why these conspiracy theories cannot be ignored.

Truth Seekers, Conspiracy Theory Followers, you will definitely enjoy this book.

To all who believe in honesty and truth:

I have been asked to write a few lines concerning my friend Howard Riell and his new book concerning his radio program and guests.

Howard was introduced to me by my long time friend Barry Fisher when Howard took over Barry's radio program. I have since become Howard's most ardent listener and friend. Many times Howard had a subject that I would like to call in to discuss but didn't. I would rather listen to what Howard had to say than hear myself. He approaches myriad subjects with truth, intelligence and his honest emotions. His approach is truthfully from his heart. He named his show appropriately "Riell Truth." Howard should have a worldwide listening audience. They don't know what they are missing.

He has captured my spiritual emotions and directed my intellect to areas that I had never visited. His voice should never be silenced.

I look forward to meeting this journalistic giant of thought one day. His presentations are unique and worth keeping.

Your friend,
E. B. "Nick" Teeter, Jr.

A small but growing number of people have studied and reflected upon the evidence. Many signs point towards an unequivocal 'power-play' going on behind the scenes. Whether we speak of a 'New World Order,' allude to 'international banksters,' or use some other equally appropriate designation, it is clear that something is going on.

Of course, there are the apologists and other mainstreamers who adamantly maintain that those who even consider such speculation are 'conspiracy theory whackballs.' Nevertheless, many credible sources have spoken out on this subject, while a number of respectable authors have published their denunciations of the invisible forces that appear to have taken over not only our government, but also many others around the globe.

It is against this backdrop that Howard Riell, host of Riell Truth, now adds his voice, with all the fiery passion of an Old Testament prophet. To parody Coleridge: His flashing eyes, his floating hair! Let the NWO beware! –

When Howard asked me to write a brief, and I will do my best to keep it brief, intro to his new book Riell Truth-Stay Angry!, I was very honored though I am not, as you will soon note, a writer or publisher. I have spent most of my life in the spoken word. The last 18 years of which I have served as the Station Manager, Program Director and

First, A Few Kind Words

Traffic Manager for a privately owned Conservative News Talk Radio Station in Colorado just north of Denver. The America News Network (ANN) KHNC 1360 was founded on the principle of Truth in Politics, Health, and Religion; and on the Conservative moral values and ethics that this great Nation was built on.

A forerunner in the what became known as “Alternative or Right Wing Media!,” ANN became a target of the mainstream establishment and we learned early on the value of selecting Show Hosts that reflect that same moral and ethical quest for Truth and their refusal to compromise the mandate.

Trust me, that was not an easy Task.

During the course of my tenure here at ANN I have crossed paths, and swords with a great many would-be Investigative reporters, Talking Heads, and self-proclaimed Media Messiahs, for lack of a better term. The average candidates ranged from circus acts and egomaniacs bent on self destruction to those willing to be bought for a price and those pursuing their own agenda.

My first introduction to Howard Riell, was on the Barry Fisher Show. He was a guest and then a guest host and I was immediately impressed by the passion, intelligence and almost righteous indignation he displayed in his reporting, his factual commentary on world events and his insight into mainstream media manipulation. A far cry from the aforementioned Media Messiahs that unfortunately still dominate the air waves. The owner of the station and I said, almost in one breath, “Howard needs his own show.” Much to our delight and that of the listening audience Howard agreed and joined us here at the American News Network with his own show, RIELL TRUTH.

On a daily basis over the last two years he has placed before his listeners not only the truth of what is happening in our world today but he has provided them with the tools necessary to discern fact and fiction, truth and manipulation for themselves. He has opened their eyes and has challenged them to share his anger and desire for the RIELL TRUTH. Now simulcast on the internet as well as KHNC 1360 am, Howard is joined by a worldwide audience from Jerusalem to New York and Beijing to L.A. and a dedicated group of fellow seekers here in the state of Colorado.

The book, RIELL TRUTH-STAY ANGRY!, is a compilation of his daily radio programs. A body of work in itself containing all the passion, energy, humor, frustration, intelligence and wit that has marked his show from the beginning. I know you will enjoy this book because of the wealth of information it contains and because it was put together for all the right reasons. Not for the Money. Not for the fame, but for the truth, The RIELL TRUTH.

STAY ANGRY

Introduction

Look, I never intended to yell at my radio audience for an hour each day -- but come on.

Get a gander at the news reports that I cover -- conspiracies, grand theft, tyranny, loss of freedom, oppressive government, unending regulation, legislation and litigation, idiot cops armed with tasers instead of brains, American soldiers roaming our streets, the Constitution in shreds, global banksters, covert intelligence agencies, black-ops budgets, monstrous tax increases, missing trillions, surveillance cameras everywhere, porous borders, global Jihad, foreign and domestic policy, civil rights, special-interest sell-outs, corporate misconduct, gross abuses of power, dishonest elections, high-level conspiracies, covert plots, cover-ups, a lap-dog press, Nazis in America, false flag ops, Board of Ed blockheads, Islamofacism, RFID chips, America's 'Shadow Government,' globalism, CIA mind-control programs, pro wrestling, the North American Union, high-profile assassinations, drones, white supremacy, illegal immigration and its repercussions and much, much more -- and all of it aimed squarely at us and our children.

I mean, how the hell can you not yell?

My show is called Riell Truth, and it airs live, Monday through Friday from 4 to 5pm EST on KHNC, 1360 AM,

Introduction

The Lion, out of Johnstown, Colorado (and streaming live around the world at www.americanewsnet.com).

My goal, as I tell my audience, isn't to entertain but to get them active. To get them up off their asses, to turn off the TV and maybe for the first time get and stay angry – angry at the myriad blood-sucking forces arrayed against us.

Generating grass-roots activism has never been a growth industry; most people don't know and frankly don't care. But I want to mobilize the masses of people who want nothing more than to live their lives and raise their families... and who may not know yet that greedy, power-addicted bastards spend their lives figuring ways to take away whatever they've got.

Long shot?

Absolutely.

So what? I'm from Brooklyn.

Why Stay Angry?

Because I take seriously those lyrics from the Chris Cornell song You Know My Name, from the James Bond movie Casino Royale:

"Arm yourself because no one else here will save you."

On May 2, 2011, following televised reports the previous night that Osama bin Laden had been killed, I found (and later that day reported on) these headlines as I scanned the internet:

- Osama Bin Laden Pronounced Dead... For the Ninth Time
- Media Runs Fake Photo To Illustrate Bin Laden Death Propaganda
- Beyond the Bin Laden Stunt; The Dire Implications of This Latest Surreal Ploy

And over the next several days:

- Why Does the Terrorist Kingpin Look Better Than He Did in 2001?

- A Final Word on the Bin Laden Hoax
 - Hoax: White House Claims 4-Year-Old Bin Laden Video Is New Footage
 - Dubious Bin Laden "Home Movies" Identical To Tapes Released 4 Years Ago By Pentagon Front Group
 - Red Alert: Help Stop False Flag Terror
- So – whither Osama bin Laden?

As Infowars noted soberly after reporting that he had allegedly been buried at sea, "... there will be no DNA check to verify if the body was indeed that of Osama bin Laden. Once again, we will be forced to either accept the government's version of events or be denounced as conspiracy theorists."

I immediately reached out to my several-times Riell Truth guest, best-selling author Jim Marrs (www.jimmarrs.com), and asked him to join me on air to share his thoughts. He wrote back the following day:

"Howdy Howard, I'm sorry as I just got home and realized I missed your show by only minutes. Here's my thoughts. The truthful, unvarnished headline: A super-secret US team of death-dealing operatives killed Osama bin Laden, among two dozen other people, in Pakistan, a nation with which we are not at war (yet), then dumped his body into the ocean without any objective forensics performed and the government now tells us everything is okay, so never mind the fighting in Iraq, Afghanistan and Libya which continues or the lethal Corexit spraying of the Gulf and the ongoing spewing of deadly radiation from the Fukushima reactors. Best regards, Jim."

And that's where it lies.

The truth?

I don't know it.

And you don't know it.

Only they know it.

And they ain't talkin'.

Introduction

Presidents don't generally make wild, irresponsible, unsupported, hare-brained statements or blind accusations; certainly nothing that will make them the targets of ridicule. But it was a President of the United States, Woodrow Wilson, who said this:

“Since I entered politics, I have chiefly had men's views confided to me privately. Some of the biggest men in the U.S., in the field of commerce and manufacturing, are afraid of somebody, are afraid of something. They know that there is a power somewhere so organized, so subtle, so watchful, so interlocked, so complete, so pervasive, that they had better not speak above their breath when they speak in condemnation of it.”

And how about this warning from Dwight D. Eisenhower, 34th President of the United States:

“In the councils of government, we must guard against the acquisition of unwarranted influence, whether sought or unsought, by the military-industrial complex. The potential for the disastrous rise of misplaced power exists and will persist.”

Then there are these remarks, made on the Floor of the House of Representatives by Louis T. McFadden of Pennsylvania, who'd served as Chairman of the Banking and Currency Committee for more than 10 years:

"Mr. Chairman, we have in this Country one of the most corrupt institutions the world has ever known. I refer to the Federal Reserve Board and the Federal Reserve Banks, hereinafter called the Fed. The Fed has cheated the Government of these United States and the people of the United States out of enough money to pay the Nation's debt. The depredations and iniquities of the Fed has cost enough money to pay the national debt several times over.

"This evil institution has impoverished and ruined the people of these United States, has bankrupted itself, and has practically bankrupted our Government. It has done this through the defects of the law under which it operates, through the maladministration of that law by the Fed and through the corrupt practices of the moneyed vultures who control it.

"Some people who think that the Federal Reserve Banks United States Government institutions. They are private monopolies which prey upon the people of these United States for the benefit of themselves and their foreign customers; foreign and domestic speculators and swindlers; and rich and predatory money lender. In that dark crew of financial pirates there are those who would cut a man's throat to get a dollar out of his pocket; there are those who send money into states to buy votes to control our legislatures; there are those who maintain International propaganda for the purpose of deceiving us into granting of new concessions which will permit them to cover up their past misdeeds and set again in motion their gigantic train of crime."

Former Minnesota Governor, pro wrestler, Harvard visiting professor and best-selling author Jesse Ventura returned to my show on April 4, 2011, to plug his new book, 63 Documents the Government Doesn't Want You to Read (SkyHorse). We soon started talking about Obama, and I posited that there has been so little difference between his presidency and that of George W. Bush that it seemed to indicate someone else, someone in the shadows, was behind both of them, pulling the strings.

"Howard, I couldn't agree with you more," Ventura said. "It clearly says that. Obama ran on 'change you can believe in.' I haven't seen any change. He said he'd get us out of Gitmo, we're still in Gitmo. He said he'd get us out of both wars, we're now in a third one with maybe a fourth one on the horizon, who knows. And it's utterly absurd. But clearly, I hope all your listeners understand, it doesn't matter if you elect a Democrat or Republican because both of these parties are completely bought off by corporate, international big corporations and all that, and that's who they get their marching orders from."

Introduction

So who the hell's running this country?
We know damn well it's not you and me.

Like you, I studied American history in school and managed to catch up on some much-needed sleep at the same time. Only as an adult do I find, to my surprise, that those geezers in white knee socks and powdered wigs who invented the United States of America were pretty hip after all:

"... the foundation of our national policy will be laid in the pure and immutable principles of private morality, and the preeminence of free government be exemplified by all the attributes which can win the affections of its citizens and command the respect of the world. I dwell on this prospect with every satisfaction which an ardent love for my country can inspire, since there is no truth more thoroughly established than that there exists in the economy and course of nature an indissoluble union between virtue and happiness; between duty and advantage; between the genuine maxims of an honest and magnanimous policy and the solid rewards of public prosperity and felicity; since we ought to be no less persuaded that the propitious smiles of Heaven can never be expected on a nation that disregards the eternal rules of order and right which Heaven itself has ordained; and since the preservation of the sacred fire of liberty and the destiny of the republican model of government are justly considered, perhaps, as deeply, as finally, staked on the experiment entrusted to the hands of the American people.” -- George Washington’s first inaugural address, New York City, Thursday, April 30, 1789

“If in the opinion of the People, the distribution or modification of the Constitutional powers be in any particular wrong, let it be corrected by an amendment in the way which the Constitution designates. But let there be no change by usurpation; for though this, in one instance, may be the instrument of good, it is the customary weapon by which free governments are destroyed.” George Washington, this time from his farewell address, September 19, 1796

“The time is now near at hand which must probably determine, whether Americans are to be, Freemen, or Slaves; whether they are to have any property they can call their own; whether their Houses, and Farms, are to be pillaged and destroyed, and they consigned to a State of Wretchedness from which no human efforts will probably deliver them. The fate of unborn Millions will now depend, under God, on the Courage and Conduct of this army. Our cruel and unrelenting Enemy leaves us no choice but a brave resistance, or the most abject submission; that is all we can expect. We have therefore to resolve to conquer or die.” – General Washington yet again (this guy had wooden teeth yet!), this time from July 2, 1776

“A general dissolution of the principles and manners will more surely overthrow the liberties of America than the whole force of the common enemy. While the people are virtuous they cannot be subdued; but once they lose their virtue, they will be ready to surrender their liberties to the first external or internal invader. If virtue and knowledge are diffused among the people, they will never be enslaved. This will be their great security.” -- Samuel Adams (no, not the beer)

“Let divines and philosophers, statesmen and patriots, unite their endeavors to renovate the age, impressing the minds of men with the importance of educating their little boys and girls, of inculcating in the minds of youth the fear and love of the Deity and universal philanthropy, and, in subordination to these great principles, the love of their country; of instructing them in the art of self-government, without which they can never act as a wise part of the government of societies, great or small in short, of leading them in the study and practice of the exalted virtues...” – Samuel Adams again

“Occasionally the tree of Liberty must be watered with the blood of Patriots and Tyrants.” -- Thomas Jefferson

“It has long, however, been my opinion, and I have never shrunk from its expression... that the germ of dissolution of our federal government is in the constitution of the federal judiciary; an irresponsible body, (for impeachment is scarcely a scare-crow,) working like gravity by night and by day, gaining a little today and a little tomorrow, and advancing its noiseless step like a thief, over the field of jurisdiction, until all shall be usurped from the States, and the government of all be consolidated into one.” – Thomas Jefferson again

“... there is no form of Government but what may be a blessing to the people if well administered, and believe farther that this is likely to be well administered for a course of years, and can only end in Despotism, as other forms have done before it, when the people shall become so corrupted as to need despotic Government, being incapable of any other.” -- Benjamin Franklin, Monday, September 17, 1787

“The powers delegated by the proposed Constitution to the federal government are few and defined. Those which are to remain in the State governments are numerous and indefinite.” -- James Madison, Federalist No. 45, January 26, 1788

Dr. Martin Luther King said these words in his famous "I Have a Dream" speech. They're great words; in fact, they're words for this great nation and its friends all around the world to live by:

“I say to you today, my friends, that in spite of the difficulties and frustrations of the moment, I still have a dream. It is a dream deeply rooted in the American dream.

“I have a dream that one day this nation will rise up and live out the true meaning of its creed: "We hold these truths to be self-evident: that all men are created equal."

“I have a dream that one day on the red hills of Georgia the sons of former slaves and the sons of former slave owners will be able to sit down together at a table of brotherhood.

“I have a dream that one day even the state of Mississippi, a desert state, sweltering with the heat of injustice and oppression, will be transformed into an oasis of freedom and justice.

“I have a dream that my four children will one day live in a nation where they will not be judged by the color of their skin but by the content of their character.

“I have a dream today.

Introduction

“I have a dream that one day the state of Alabama, whose governor's lips are presently dripping with the words of interposition and nullification, will be transformed into a situation where little black boys and black girls will be able to join hands with little white boys and white girls and walk together as sisters and brothers.

“I have a dream today.

“I have a dream that one day every valley shall be exalted, every hill and mountain shall be made low, the rough places will be made plain, and the crooked places will be made straight, and the glory of the Lord shall be revealed, and all flesh shall see it together.

“This is our hope. This is the faith with which I return to the South. With this faith we will be able to hew out of the mountain of despair a stone of hope. With this faith we will be able to transform the jangling discords of our nation into a beautiful symphony of brotherhood. With this faith we will be able to work together, to pray together, to struggle together, to go to jail together, to stand up for freedom together, knowing that we will be free one day.

“This will be the day when all of God's children will be able to sing with a new meaning, ‘My country, 'tis of thee, sweet land of liberty, of thee I sing. Land where my fathers died, land of the pilgrim's pride, from every mountainside, let freedom ring.’

“And if America is to be a great nation this must become true. So let freedom ring from the prodigious hilltops of New Hampshire. Let freedom ring from the mighty mountains of New York. Let freedom ring from the heightening Alleghenies of Pennsylvania!

“Let freedom ring from the snowcapped Rockies of Colorado!

“Let freedom ring from the curvaceous peaks of California!

“But not only that; let freedom ring from Stone Mountain of Georgia!

“Let freedom ring from Lookout Mountain of Tennessee!

“Let freedom ring from every hill and every molehill of Mississippi. From every mountainside, let freedom ring.

“When we let freedom ring, when we let it ring from every village and every hamlet, from every state and every city, we will be able to speed up that day when all of God's children, black men and white men, Jews and Gentiles, Protestants and Catholics, will be able to join hands and sing in the words of the old Negro spiritual, ‘Free at last! Free at last! Thank God Almighty, we are free at last!’”

Obviously, no show can exist without its audience.

On Saturday, April 16, 2011, I received a wonderful surprise in the mail: a Passover card from a listener named Beverly Jones in Fort Collins, Colorado. Inside, she wrote the following:

“Howard, I am a Christian, but I truly appreciate my Jewish roots, and therefore appreciate your faith in the God of Abraham, Isaac and Jacob and your love for Israel. ☺ P.S. I really love your program; it’s unique and ‘real’! Baruch Hashem! Sincerely, Beverly Jones ☺.”

Introduction

At the bottom of the card, Beverly included a citation from the Bible, Numbers 6:24-26. For those, like me, who don't know the passage by heart, here it is:

“Hashem bless thee, and keep thee; Hashem make His face to shine upon thee, and be gracious unto thee; Hashem lift up His countenance upon thee, and give thee peace.”

On the back of the envelope Beverly wrote Exodus 12:13. Again, I quote the Bible:

“And the blood shall be to you for a token upon the houses where ye are; and when I see the blood, I will pass over you, and there shall no plague be upon you to destroy you, when I smite the land of Egypt.”

Beverly – from the bottom of my heart, thank you, and God bless.

I greatly appreciate all the kind words that are sent to me, both by listeners.....

“Congrats on the show. I am so happy that you are a Jewish conservative voice being heard. Good for you, go get 'em, don't ever stop!”

"I would like to thank you for your radio program, (Riell Truth). I highly recommend it to all my friends and family, who are seekers of truth. I'm a true fan of (Riell Truth), I listen on 1360 am at 2pm or 9pm Mon. thru Fri. on the American Freedom Network. And the truth shall set us free."

“Keep up the excellent work. I look forward to 4:00PM every day.”

..... and by guests:

“Dear Howard, I would like to thank you for being such a gracious host and allowing me so much time to address the sordid issues of the CULT of Muhammadan Islam. We both have missions to fulfill. I would be honoured to be on your talk show any time you want me. I am only an e mail away!”

“I very much appreciate the opportunity you gave me, and thank you very much as well for plugging my book... Once again, it was a pleasure and honor being on your show. Continued good luck to you. (Incidentally, I liked your comment about NPR earlier in the hour -- questioning why we need a public radio station whatsoever. Spot on.)”

“Thanks to you for having us on. It’s a great show.”

“Hey Howard, great show and thanks for the opportunity, great prep you worked out material in perfectly. rgds & much appreciation.”

“And thanks to you too, Howard. You are sharp, quick, right on the mark; this was one of the better interviews in my experience. Keep it going. Blessings...”

“Thanks to you. You are doing something really special with this show!”

“Dear Howard, Thanks so much for the invitation to join you on the show today - It was a pleasure to talk with you. I appreciated your careful and insightful questions and hope that our conversation was equally stimulating for our listeners as well.

Introduction

“You're an excellent interviewer!”

“Once again, the time goes by way too fast. I enjoyed your show very much and am thankful for the opportunity to have been a guest.”

“Keep in touch, you are my conscience and voice to the nation. God bless...”

“Thanks, Howard. Really appreciate you and your show. Smart and real!!! Sending best wishes and thanks again...”

“Thank you very much for having me. Good, intriguing questions. Thanks again...”

“Thank you Howard. Please continue to get the word out. We need all the help we can get!!!!”

“Hey Howard, It's your tin-foil buddy... from Denver. I just wanted to drop you a few lines about last weeks guest who was talking about Bohemian grove. Just wanted to congratulate you on handling him so well... He sounded like he was lobbying for cap n trade more than he was trying to give any straight forward answers about the Grove. Then he tried to accuse you of not living up to the name of your show. Most humorous of all is when he tried to say Obama was not part of the cabal running the world. Just absolutely, unbelievable... Did this guy do any kind of unbiased research on anything that spewed out of his mouth? Obama, his wife and Joe Biden all have deep CFR, and Tri-Lat connections and the bankers put him in office, which he then repaid them with more bailouts, and then gave the Fed the unbelievable powers that were just granted to them. I wanted to reach through the phone and shake the hell out of this guy. Then again he is just another brain-washed American who CAN tell you everything about celebrities and television but absolutely NOTHING about the RIELL TRUTH!!!!!! Thanks for all you do Howard, you truly are an inspiration to all that want to live in reality. Keep up the good work. I would love to help the "fight" in anyway I can. any info you can give on setting up my own radio show or helping you would be appreciated!!! Thanks again and I'm sure I will be talking to you soon. I just got one of those damn 9-5 jobs so I may not be able to catch you live very often but I will stay in-touch!!! Peace and Love...."

"Yes a very interesting topic and you're an excellent interviewer!"

"It's always a pleasure to work with a pro like you who actually prepares for an interview, trust me it shows. Thanks again, we really appreciate it."

"Many thanks Howard and agree never enough; at end of all my programs I wish had another hour. I'd be delighted to come on with you any time on any issue... Hope you got my morning email. I loved being on with you, delighted to do again next week if that's what you're asking - or to come on any time on any topic."

"You were great."

"Hi Howard, Just wanted to extend my appreciation to you for an intelligent and lively interview. This was my first radio segment and your low-key style and astute observations were incredibly helpful. Best Regards..."

"Man can live for days w/out food. Man can live for hours w/out water. Man can live minutes w/out air. Man can not live w/out hope. Optimist; no mater how dark....and it's very dark. Cheers..."

"Thank you so much for having me on, the hour went quicker than I imagined. Hope we get the opportunity again..."

"Hello Howard. It was a pleasure being on your show. I hope I was able to shed some light on such a dark topic. I congratulate you on having a very good grasp of the topic. Thanks for everything."

"Howard: Thanks much for the note. You are a great host and it was terrific being on your show. I'm looking forward to hearing about the JFK shooter. There is much to learn about that great coverup. Best..."

"Yes Mr. Riell, you are a man of courage and I was blessed to be on your program... God bless you as you air the truth."

"Mr. Riell, Thank you for having me on your show... You were one of the more insightful interviewers I have spoken to in past weeks and there have been hundreds... Anytime you would like to continue our conversation I would be most flattered to be your guest. All the best..."

"Thank you, and wow, I am very impressed with your questions and professionalism. One of a kind."

"I enjoyed it too, Howard. Thanks so much... Really appreciate your help... Too bad we can't meet. Looking forward to the next show!"

"Howard: Thanks for having me on. I hope I was coherent. We covered a lot of ground. You asked all the right questions. Happy to do it again any time. As you now know, it's hard to shut me up about this stuff. Let me know if you get any feedback. Or in this case, I should say 'blowback.'”

“... Those were the days of great, honorable leaders and insightful dreamers. What a difference today. I always believed that good men would out. This is truly a sorrowful time. We have never needed anyone as we do a Churchill or at least an honorable man or insightful dreamer. I would like to meet you, before our great country is gone but I doubt if that will ever happen. Let me take this opportunity to tell a like spirit, that I feel that God has Blessed you and your efforts. You are a true friend of America and a true friend in Christ. You have been identified by your works. Mr. Keyes is probably another; although, he will probably never speak to as many as you have in your audience on a daily basis. He may be an invaluable ally. Your Friend...”

“I listened to the entire hour again and sent it to many friends. Again, you asked direct questions that warranted that I listen to the answers rather than interrupt to inject my two cents worth. You and he were completely out of my league. The student should be silent and listed to the teachers... Please keep up the excellent programming. You are one of the brightest intellectual lights in this dark reality. God sanctifies your efforts. Your Friend and Student...”

“Howard... Of all hosts I've been on with since the book came out, you were the best informed. Appreciate the interview (and your patience!). If you need me again please feel free to contact me. All the best...”

“It was a good show and you were a good interviewer. There is so much more to talk about though....”

Introduction

“Thanks, Howard. If you ever want me back, it would be my pleasure.”

“Howard: a belated thanks for the show yesterday; I have done countless radio shows and it was a pleasure to have a host that did his homework and appreciated my work and gave me ample time to express myself. Clearly, you are a kindred soul... Stay well and stay a true patriot...”

“Thank you for having me on, Howard. You were a terrific interviewer. All the best to you as well. Kind regards...”

“And thank you for giving me a chance to talk about it! You ask great questions.”

“Thank you very much for the invitation. Beware the fairness doctrine.”

“Howard, Thanks too for doing the important work of getting out the conservative message.”

“Dear Howard: Thanks loads for the opportunity to be on your show. It was a thrilling experience for me... I hope you get some good vibes from your audience. With best wishes...”

“Dear Howard: It was my pleasure. I thank you and all the great talk hosts who keep us informed of what the media does not tell us.”

“It was a very nice time. My English lacks a lot of words, so it's difficult for me to be as convincing that I could be in French, but I felt the ideas went their way. I appreciated your fine questions, and hope the show will continue to get success. Best regards...”

“Your kind words are deeply appreciated. You are a wonderful and courageous journalist. Godspeed...”

“Howard - And thank you for your careful and considered questions. It was my pleasure!”

“Thank YOU!!! I had a blast. Peace...”

“Howard: Doing your show is such a pleasure. As opposed to other talk show hosts, you always do your research which is much appreciated on this end.”

“Thanks -- you're a great host!”

“Of all the interviews - and interviewers - I've had, you were probably the best - your questions, your comments, your insights and the way you directed the conversation were right on the mark! Thanks.”

“Great discussion, Howard, even if we disagree on some things; you're an excellent host and a fair one; love to do this again any time on any topic.”

“Thanks very much for your interest Howard. I enjoyed our hour together, and appreciated being invited. All best...”

“I'll come on anytime you want! I had a blast. Thanks again so much for the support and opportunity! Take care...”

“Thanks Howard, you're a great interviewer! I'm waiting eagerly for my next Global Research piece too! So much to do, so little time...”

“Thanks, Howard. I enjoyed our conversation. I wish you continued success with your program.”

Introduction

“Hi Howard, Thank you for having me. I would love to do it again. Yours...”

“Howard, Would be glad to (return for another interview).”

“Howard, Thanks for the interview. It was GREAT!”

“Howdy Howard. That was a great interview. We covered a lot of territory but basically got said what needed to be said. Best regards...”

“I am enjoying your program in ways that I can't express. I listen to Coast to Coast and Steve Quayle's once in a while. I try to hear yours daily. I am trying to tape yours as often as possible... Keep up the good work.”

“Howard, Thank you so much. You did your research and we actually got to discuss some really important points. Also, your next show sounds very intriguing to me. Where can I go to listen online?”

“Howard, Wonderful interview. Thank you. You play extremely well in Peoria! Let's do it again.”

Hey, the kind words are great, and very much appreciated. But my goal in writing this book, -- in doing the show -- is not to pump up my ego. No time for that, and too much riding on what we do and don't do right now. The crisis is already upon us.

Remember Kevin McCarthy as Dr. Miles J. Bennell, in Invasion of the Body Snatchers, frantically running along the highway shouting to anyone who might listen? “They're here already! You're next! You're next, You're next...!”

In his movie Manhattan, Wood Allen is exchanging banter at a smart New York cocktail party with well-dressed, sophisticated snobs and the conversation turns to current events. He asks, "Has anybody read that Nazis are going to march in New Jersey, you know? I read this in the newspaper, we should go down there, get some guys together, you know, get some bricks and baseball bats and really explain things to them." Another member of the clique responds, "There was this devastating satirical piece on that on the op-ed page of the Times. It is devastating." But Woody perseveres: "Well, well, a satirical piece in the Times is one thing, but bricks and baseball bats really gets right to the point." A woman responds, "Oh, but really biting satire is always better than physical force." Adds Woody, "No, physical force is always better with Nazis 'cause... it's hard to satirize a guy with shiny boots."

For once, I agree with Woody Allen.

Op-eds, think pieces, columns, articles, reviews, biting commentary just don't get the job done. Sometimes ya gotta roll up the ol' sleeves and get messy, because that's the only thing certain elements understand.

In Paddy Chayefsky's brilliant 1976 movie Network, which opened the eyes of a young college student named Howard Riell, newscaster Howard Beale (no, not Howard Riell) flips out and begin spouting truth:

"I don't have to tell you things are bad. Everybody knows things are bad. It's a depression. Everybody's out of work or scared of losing their job. The dollar buys a nickel's worth, banks are going bust, shopkeepers keep a gun under the counter. Punks are running wild in the street and there's nobody anywhere who seems to know what to do, and there's no end to it. We know the air is unfit to breathe and our food is unfit to eat, and we sit watching our TV's while some local newscaster tells us that today we had fifteen homicides and sixty-three violent crimes, as if that's the way it's supposed to be. We know things are bad - worse than bad. They're crazy. It's like everything everywhere is going crazy, so we don't go out anymore. We sit in the house, and slowly the world we are living in is getting smaller, and all we say is, 'Please, at least leave us alone in our living rooms. Let me have my toaster and my TV and my steel-belted radials and I won't say anything. Just leave us alone.' Well, I'm not gonna leave you alone. I want you to get mad! I don't want you to protest. I don't want you to riot - I don't want you to write to your congressman because I wouldn't know what to tell you to write. I don't know what to do about the depression and the inflation and the Russians and the crime in the street. All I know is that first you've got to get mad. You've got to say, 'I'm a HUMAN BEING, God damn it! My life has VALUE!' So I want you to get up now. I want all of you to get up out of your chairs. I want you to get up right now and go to the window. Open it, and stick your head out, and yell, 'I'M AS MAD AS HELL, AND I'M NOT GOING TO TAKE THIS ANYMORE!' I want you to get up right now, sit up, go to your windows, open them and stick your head out and yell - 'I'm as mad as hell and I'm not going to take this anymore!' Things have got to change. But first, you've gotta get mad! You've got to say, 'I'm as mad as hell, and I'm not going to take this anymore!' Then we'll figure out what to do about the depression and the inflation and the oil crisis. But first get up out of your chairs, open the window, stick your head out, and yell, and say it: "I'm as mad as hell, and I'm not going to take this anymore!"

Introduction

Masters of the World

This is a book about the self-styled Masters of the World --- the Banksters, the New World Order, the hyper-rich, the connected, the Corporatocracy, the Hum, the patrician class, the moneyed interests, the elite, the aristocracy, the globalists, the ruling class, the Pezze di Novante, the hoi polloi, the royal families, the merchant class, the Military-Industrial Complex, the Invisible Hand, the Cryptocracy, the shadow government, the oil magnates, the Saudi sheiks, the arms dealers, the media moguls, the presidents, princes and potentates. Those who can topple governments, devalue currencies, crash markets, depose leaders, start wars and revolutions, assassinate world leaders, alter maps and commit mass murder with impunity. Those who are above any law, who profit from human suffering; who have been clever enough and rich enough and connected enough and arrogant enough and devious enough and ruthless enough to have kept the peoples of the world at each other throats and poor and sick and hungry and powerless and voiceless and entertained, and to have remained invisible while doing it, and who plan nothing less than de facto slavery for humanity.

Those who are responsible for so much misery.

The yetzer ha-rah, man's evil inclination, that drives people like these has been around a very, very long time.

“Now the entire earth was of one language and uniform words. And it came to pass when they traveled from the east, that they found a valley in the land of Shinar and settled there. And they said to one another, ‘Come, let us make bricks and fire them thoroughly’; so the bricks were to them for stones, and the clay was to them for mortar. And they said, ‘Come, let us build ourselves a city and a tower with its top in the heavens, and let us make ourselves a name, lest we be scattered upon the face of the entire earth.’ And the Lord descended to see the city and the tower that the sons of man had built. And the Lord said, ‘Lo! [they are] one people, and they all have one language, and this is what they have commenced to do. Now, will it not be withheld from them, all that they have planned to do? Come, let us descend and confuse their language, so that one will not understand the language of his companion.’ And the Lord scattered them from there upon the face of the entire earth, and they ceased building the city. Therefore, He named it Babel, for there the Lord confused the language of the entire earth, and from there the Lord scattered them upon the face of the entire earth. -- Genesis 11

The New God Became High-Rise Achievements With Mortar And Brick: The Tower of Babel, noted Rabbi Shlomo Riskin, Chief Rabbi of the city of Efrat in Israel, represents “a new stage of depravity, not sexual but social.

The united goal was to create a great name by building great towers, not for the sake of Heaven, but for the sake of materialism; the new god became high-rise achievements with mortar and brick. As they reached greater physical heights, they completely forgot the human, inter-personal value of a friend, a wife, a life's partner. According to the midrash, when a person fell off the Tower, work continued, but if a brick crashed the ground, people mourned. The picture is one of heartless, soul-less, communication-less Stalin totalitarianism."

Hubris, Man Trying To Be More Than Human: In a speech delivered at the Orthodox Union West Coast Convention in December 1997, Jonathan Sacks, Chief Rabbi of the British Commonwealth, referred to the story of the Tower by noting: "By human beings trying to create a self-sufficient universe immune to God -- 'Let us build a city and a tower with its top in the heavens,' a self-sufficient city with a tower that reaches heaven -- that civilization failed because of what the Greeks call hubris, man trying to be more than human. After the failure of two universal orders of civilization, God rejects the very concept of the universal order."

For Ourselves: On Genesis 11:4 ("...so that we can make a name for ourselves"), Rabbi Bachya ben Asher (Lambda Publishers Inc., Brooklyn, NY, translated and annotated by Rabbi Eliyahu Munk, 1998; pages 205-207) notes that "this is why God punished them by scattering them; to teach them that they had contravened His commandment to fill the Earth with His presence." Making a name "for ourselves" is an indirect reference to idolatry, he adds. Rabbi Bachya recounts a midrash claiming that the tower's builders were planning to "invade heaven to flood it and drain it in order to ensure that another deluge could not originate from that source. They wanted to take large chunks of heaven and to engage in war with the King of the heavens."

One: Masters of the World

Indeed, in the midrash Bereshis Rabbah (38:6) we are told that the builders and their followers did “not agree that God should have an exclusive right to heaven, whereas we have only been assigned Earth. Let us make war against Him.”

Rabbi Bachya ben Asher takes his analysis still further, inferring that the inhabitants of Shinar considered themselves all-powerful: after all, God Himself was concerned with how much power they might accumulate. The main goal was to overcome their mortality by entering heaven while still alive. Thus, the building of the tower “was designed to achieve immortality. The reason God had to scatter them was because they planned to nullify his world order” with what might be termed a “new” world order. “These people undertook something which, if left unchecked, would result in the end of mankind.”

Interesting to note: God scattered them, so that due to the long distances they lost contact with each other. Just as we, today, scattered around the world, will lose contact with each other once communications are cut off.

Dor Haflagah: Rashi charges that the generation of the tower and subsequent dispersion were guilty of ingratitude for having been spared the raging waters of Noah’s flood. But as Rav Avraham Pam, zt”l, is said to have commented (in Shabbos with Rav Pam, Mesorah Publications, Ltd., Brooklyn, NY, 2007, page 215), “This Rashi is truly astonishing! The Dor Haflagah (Generation of the Dispersion) did not live a year or two after the Mabul (flood). They lived 340 years later – and yet were criticized as being ungrateful for the kindness of Hashem Who had spared their ancestors...”

To Wage War With Him: On the phrase, “And the whole Earth was of one language and of one speech,” Midrash Rabbah (The Soncino Press, Ltd., London, England/New York City, Third Edition, 1983, Volume One, page 304)

quotes R. Leazar explaining, “That means, of veiled (secret, covert) deeds, for the deeds of the generation of the Flood are explicitly stated, whereas those of the generation of Separation are not explicitly stated.” That same generation of Separation is reported to have said amongst themselves, “It does not rest with Him to choose the celestial spheres for Himself and assign the terrestrial world to us. Come, rather, and let us build a tower at the top of which we will set an idol holding a sword, that it may appear to wage war with Him.”

A Crafty Design To Rid Themselves Of The Supreme

Power: In the holy Zohar (The Soncino Press, Ltd., London, England/New York City, 1984, Volume One, page 254) we read that behind the words, “Come let us build a city, and a tower, with its top in heaven,” there was “a plan of rebellion against the Holy One, blessed be He. It was a foolish scheme, born out of the stupidity of their heart. R. Abba said, ‘Foolish they certainly were, but at the same time they had a crafty design to rid themselves of the Supreme Power and to transfer His glory to another.’”

Certainly this applies to them, today’s global elite, who are following directly in the tracks of the tower’s builders. The irony, of course, is that eventually there will be a single world government some day – but under the auspices of God, in the Messianic age.

When they said, “Come, let us make a name,” what they meant, says the Zohar, was really that they themselves should become “an object of worship.”

Genesis tells us that God came down “to see the city and the tower that the sons of man (adam) built.” Mankind, the Zohar teaches, “are here called ‘sons of Adam’ because it was Adam, the first man, who rebelled against his Master and brought death to the world.”

Later, the Zohar states, “... they provoked the Holy One, blessed be He, built a tower and did various kinds of mischief until they were scattered over the face of the Earth, and there was no wisdom left with them for any purpose of all.” Once the coming calamity strikes, wiping out financial markets and money, cutting off communication, transportation and ready supplies of untainted food and water, making every day a fight for survival, what will their vast wealth, connections and privilege avail any of them? Notes R. Jose as if to punctuate this lesson, “From here we learn that quarrelsome folk soon come to grief.”

The Tower Of Babel Of 4,000 Years Ago Came To Our Doorsteps: According to Rabbi Don Yitzchak Abarbanel, the sin of the generation of the tower was that they began to take God’s natural bounty for granted, and considered the trappings of the civilization they’d created with their own hands to be superior. Again: ingratitude and arrogance, an elevation of man’s means over God’s. As Earl Abraham David opines in Code of the Heart: Gematria as a Bible Decoder (Mazal & Bracha Inc., New York, NY, 2003; page 57), “The Tower of Babel of 4,000 years ago came to our doorsteps when our Twin Towers were destroyed... The World Trade Center attack was a wake-up call.”

The New High Priests: "Capitalism today commands the towering heights, and has displaced politics and politicians as the new high priests and reigning oligarchs of our system. So capitalism and its principle protagonists and players, corporate CEOs, have been accorded unusual power and access. This is not to deny the significance of governments and politicians, but these are the new high priests." -- Ira Jackson, Director of the Center for Business and Government at Harvard's Kennedy School and author of Profits with Principles, in the 2003 documentary, The Corporation, about an attempted coup by industrialists (corporations) to overthrow president Franklin D. Roosevelt and the US Government during the 1930s.

Their fingerprints are everywhere.

Not because they're careless. Because they're arrogant.

They hardly bother to cover their tracks.

After all, who can touch them?

But deep in the pit of their stomachs, they know Who.

I read the books and the articles and I visit the web sites and I scan the news and I watch the videos, and the same familiar names and phrases keep flashing before my eyes like glittering lights on a carousel. You'll see them too if you look. Rockefeller. Morgan. Rothschild. Schiff. Melon. Dulles. Warburg. Harriman. Bush. Hammer. Brezinski. Ford. Kissinger. Saud. Skull and Bones. Bilderberg. Trilateral. Big Oil. Wall Street. State Department. CFR. CIA. FBI. FEMA. UN. NWO.

The self-styled gods of the planet Earth.

The rich and powerful who want nothing in the world so much as to be even richer and even more powerful no matter what.

Addicts.

Fools.

Did they think there wouldn't be a price to pay?

Did they think that's how the world works?

Or did they not even think at all?

We know who they are.

And we see what they do.

And we know what they're planning.

We've got to make them stop.

And hope that it's in time.

Pray.

The Pandora's Boxes that they have thrown open – Muslim Jihad, China, mass starvation and poverty, the global drug trade, nuclear technology, bio-weapons, energy weapons, cyber warfare, orbital weapons, mind-control techniques, ubiquitous surveillance, renegade black ops, the fury of the masses – and the anger of the Almighty are what will bring on the collapse of our civilization and plunge the world into another Dark Age.

In my very first Riell Truth broadcast of 2009 I tried my best to crystallize for my listeners exactly what they were up against. I opened the show this way:

“Former Economic Hit Man John Perkins lays it out clearly in his book, The Secret History of the American Empire: America, he writes, is ‘ruled by a group of people who collectively act very much like a king. They run our largest corporations and, through them, our government. They cycle through the ‘revolving door’ back and forth between business and government. Because they fund political campaigns and the media, they control elected officials and the information we receive. These men and women (the Corporatocracy) are in charge regardless of whether Republicans or Democrats control the White House or Congress. They are not subject to the people’s wills and their terms are not limited by law... In the process of building this empire, we in the United States have managed to discard our most fundamental beliefs, those that in the past defined the very essence of what it is to be an American. We have denied ourselves and those we colonize the rights so eloquently expressed by our Declaration of Independence. We have forfeited the principles of universal equality, justice and prosperity.”

For nearly three years now on Riell Truth I’ve been telling my listeners, the Tin-Foil Hat Brigade, to keep their tin-foil hats on because the United States of America today is being brought low by these people and their useful idiots.

Unthinkable wealth drained from us by the central bankers.

Our federal, state and local governments spreading aggressively into every nook and cranny of our lives.

The military patrolling our streets for the first time in our nation's history.

Less freedom and liberty for the individual.

A devaluing of the currency, rendering Americans poorer and more dependent on government than ever.

The evisceration of the Constitution.

Ubiquitous electronic surveillance.

The specter of compulsory government service.

Opposition political parties that, below the surface, are virtually identical.

Corporations willing to sell out this nation in the name of obscene profits.

Destructive legislation pushed into law without having been read by legislators.

America plunged into a hole of debt from which it can never climb out.

A perpetual state of emergency since 9/11 that allows the President to suspend Constitutional law at a moment's notice, take citizens' property, conscript us into forced government service, control the media and more.

FEMA detention camps to be used to quell civil unrest.

Moves designed to weaken U.S. sovereignty, including attempts to create a North American Union, leaving us at the mercy of international organizations.

The sale of large portions of our country to foreign powers.

Empowering the corrupt United Nations, including giving away so-called World Heritage Sites like the Grand Canyon and Yellowstone National Parks.

Becoming signatories to the World Criminal Court

The Law of the Sea Treaty, a major step toward a monolithic world government.

A rogue intelligence community sheltering war criminals, assassinating political leaders and God knows who else, overthrowing democratically elected governments, suppressing movements for social change, compiling enemies lists, manipulating labor unions, forming death squads, perfecting biological warfare, trafficking in drugs and torturing the innocent.

The radicalization of civilian law enforcement.

Confiscatory taxation and runaway national debt.

Government limits on what individuals can do with their own property.

Members of secret societies filling so many positions of power in our government.

The emasculation of freedom of speech, and corporate media serving as the dutiful lackeys of the wealthy and powerful.

Political correctness filling the de facto role of Orwell's thought crimes.

And so much more.

I'm horrified by what I've found while hosting Riell Truth.

The America we once knew is gone.

These elites have even succeeded for centuries now – even into our present day – in having the simple minded, the haters, the envious do the work of covering their tracks for them.

The Anti-Defamation League (ADL) reported in October 2008 that “conspiracy theories linking Jews and Israel to the global financial meltdown are taking on global reach as the financial crisis on Wall Street continues to affect markets around the world... anti-Jewish invective and conspiracy theories are spreading globally” in European and Latin American countries and the Middle East...

"One disturbing side effect to the global economic meltdown is the resurgence of the Big Lie," said Abraham H. Foxman, ADL National Director, in a release. "Anti-Jewish invective and conspiracy theories are spreading globally. While it is still early, we know from experience what can happen when anti-Jewish myths gain a foothold and move from the far fringes into the mainstream... Whenever world events are difficult to explain or understand, Jews are the most convenient scapegoat."

This belief "that only Jews could be responsible for something so catastrophic and damaging to the global economy plays directly into some of the worst anti-Semitic stereotypes," said Foxman. "The idea that there is Jewish control of the banking system and the world economy has its antecedents in the Protocols of the Elders of Zion and Nazi-era propaganda."

As ADL pointed out, the idiocy goes clear around the world. In the U.K. some nut wrote that some of the banks involved in the meltdown "used to be Jewish-owned." In Russia, the propagandists at Pravda charged that European leaders wanted more than anything else to help the Rothschild, Kuhn Loeb, and other banking families. "The trouble is most of Europe is sick of their Zionist puppet governments, the wrecking of the universities and the flood of third world immigration. Another Hitler, running a united Europe, could be elected in a heartbeat." In Germany, phrases like "money-savvy" and "financially dominating Jew" are turning up in print. In Spain, one fool suggested that the financial crisis was "not a financial problem but an economic one ... it is what is behind this gruesome scene of savage capitalism of the Zionist students of Milton Friedman." In Venezuela, morons intoned that "the U.S. government is controlled by the Jewish lobby."

I can all but hear them laughing up their sleeves.

Their existence, these behind-the-scene power brokers, has been known, and dreaded, since long before I arrived on the scene. Consider all the notoriety they've received down through the years:

Behind The Throne: "There is something behind the throne greater than the king himself." – attributed to Sir William Pitt, House of Lords, 1770

One: Masters of the World

More Dangerous To Our Liberties Than Standing

Armies: "I believe that banking institutions are more dangerous to our liberties than standing armies. Already they have raised up a monied aristocracy that has set the government at defiance. The issuing power should be taken from the banks and restored to the people to whom it properly belongs... and that the principle of spending money to be paid by posterity, under the name of funding, is but swindling futurity on a large scale." -- attributed to Thomas Jefferson, third President of the United States (source: <http://www.working-minds.com/TJquotes.htm>)

Their Children Will Wake Up Homeless: "If the American people ever allow private banks to control the issue of their money, first by inflation and then by deflation, the banks and corporations that will grow up around them (around the banks), will deprive the people of their property until their children will wake up homeless on the continent their fathers conquered." -- attributed to Thomas Jefferson

A Series Of Oppressions: "Single acts of tyranny may be ascribed to the accidental opinion of a day. But a series of oppressions, begun at a distinguished period, and pursued unalterably through every change of ministers (administrations), too plainly proves a deliberate systematic plan of reducing us to slavery." -- attributed to Thomas Jefferson

Eternal Hostility Against Every Form Of Tyranny: "I have sworn, upon the altar of god, eternal hostility against every form of tyranny over the mind of man." -- from a letter from Thomas Jefferson to his friend Benjamin Rush, September 23, 1800

I Will Rout You Out: "You are a den of vipers and thieves. I intend to rout you out, and by the eternal God I will rout you out." -- attributed to Andrew Jackson, speaking to bankers

The World Is Governed By Very Different Personages: "For you see, the world is governed by very different personages from what is imagined by those who are not behind the scenes." -- attributed to Benjamin Disraeli, two-time Prime Minister of the United Kingdom (source: http://quotes.liberty-tree.ca/quotes_about/illuminati)

Secret Societies Which Have Everywhere Their Unscrupulous Agents: "The governments of the present day have to deal not merely with other governments, with emperors, kings and ministers, but also with the secret societies which have everywhere their unscrupulous agents, and can at the last moment upset all the governments' plans." -- attributed to British Prime Minister Benjamin Disraeli

Let Us Not Have Such A Machine Any Longer: "All men recognize the right of revolution; that is, the right to refuse allegiance to, and to resist, the government, when its tyranny or its inefficiency is great and unendurable. And oppression and robbery are organized, I say; let us not have such a machine any longer. I think that it is not too soon for honest men to rebel and revolutionize." – Henry David Thoreau, On the Duty of Civil Disobedience

The Money Powers Of The Country Will Endeavor To Prolong Its Reign: "The money powers prey upon the nation in times of peace and conspire against it in times of adversity. It is more despotic than a monarchy, more insolent than autocracy, and more selfish than bureaucracy. It denounces as public enemies, all who question its methods or throw light upon its crimes... As a result of the war, corporations have been enthroned and an era of corruption in high places will follow, and the money powers of the country will endeavor to prolong its reign by working upon the prejudices of the people until all wealth is aggregated in a few hands and the Republic is destroyed." -- Abraham Lincoln

Foreign Bankers With Their Craftiness And Tortuous Tricks Will Entirely Control The Exuberant Riches Of America: "The death of Lincoln was a disaster for Christendom. There was no man in the United States great enough to wear his boots, and the bankers went anew to grab the riches. I fear that foreign bankers with their craftiness and tortuous tricks will entirely control the exuberant riches of America and use it to systematically corrupt civilization." -- attributed to Otto von Bismarck, Prussian and German statesman, Minister-President of Prussia from 1862–90, Chancellor of the North German Confederation and, later, the second German Empire

Not One Of You Who Dares To Write Your Honest Opinions: "There is no such thing, at this date of the world's history, in America, as an independent press. You know it and I know it. There is not one of you who dares to write your honest opinions, and if you did, you know beforehand that it would never appear in print... We are the tools and vassals of rich men behind the scenes. We are the jumping jacks they pull the strings and we dance. Our talents, our possibilities and our lives are all the property of other men. We are intellectual prostitutes." — attributed to John Swinton, Managing Editor, New York Times

Without Suspecting That The System Is Inimical To Their Best Interests: "The few who understand the system, will either be so interested in its profits, or so dependent on its favors that there will be no opposition from that class, while on the other hand, the great body of people, mentally incapable of comprehending the tremendous advantages... will bear its burden without complaint, and perhaps without suspecting that the system is inimical to their best interests.”

 -- John Sherman, in a letter to New York bankers on June 25, 1863 in support of the proposed National Banking Act (Source: <http://topics.dallasnews.com/quote/07UQ9Csduefm3>)

Concedes Nothing: “Power concedes nothing without a demand. It never has, and it never will.” – Frederick Douglass

A Concealed Yes Drives Us: “We have no choice left.... A concealed yes drives us that is stronger than all our no’s. Our strength itself will no longer endure us in the old decaying soil. We venture away, we venture ourselves! We know of a new world.” -- Friedrich Nietzsche

A Revolution Before Tomorrow Morning: "It is well enough that people of the nation do not understand our Banking and Monetary system, for if they did, I believe there would be a Revolution before tomorrow morning." - attributed to Henry Ford

To Keep The Populace Alarmed: "The whole aim of practical politics is to keep the populace alarmed, and hence clamorous to be led to safety, by menacing it with an endless series of hobgoblins, all of them imaginary." – attributed to H.L. Mencken

Control Of A Nation’s Money: “Give me control of a nation's money and I care not who makes the laws.” -- attributed to Mayer Amschel Rothschild, in a speech to a gathering of world bankers February 12, 1912, a year before the creation of the Federal Reserve Bank

A Government By The Opinion And The Duress Of Small Groups Of Dominant Men: “We have restricted credit, we have restricted opportunity, we have controlled development, and we have come to be one of the worst ruled, one of the most completely controlled and dominated, governments in the civilized world--no longer a government by free opinion, no longer a government by conviction and the vote of the majority, but a government by the opinion and the duress of small groups of dominant men.” -- attributed to Woodrow Wilson

An Invisible Empire Has Been Set Up: “The government, which was designed for the people, has got into the hands of the bosses and their employers, the special interests. An invisible empire has been set up above the forms of democracy.” -- attributed to Woodrow Wilson

The Invisible Government Of The Monetary Power: “This Act (the Federal Reserve Act, Dec. 23, 1913) establishes the most gigantic trust on earth. When the President (Woodrow Wilson) signs the bill, the invisible government of the Monetary Power will be legalized... The worst legislative crime of the ages is perpetrated by this banking and currency bill.” -- attributed to Charles A. Lindbergh, Sr.

People Without Homes Will Not Quarrel With Their Leaders: “Capital must protect itself in every way... Debts must be collected and loans and mortgages foreclosed as soon as possible. When through a process of law the common people have lost their homes, they will be more tractable and more easily governed by the strong arm of the law applied by the central power of leading financiers. People without homes will not quarrel with their leaders.

This is well known among our principle men now engaged in forming an imperialism of capitalism to govern the world. By dividing the people we can get them to expend their energies in fighting over questions of no importance to us except as teachers of the common herd." -- attributed to J. P. Morgan, American financier and banker

So Organized, So Subtle, So Watchful, So Interlocked, So Complete, So Pervasive: "Since I entered politics, I have chiefly had men's views confided to me privately. Some of the biggest men in the U.S., in the field of commerce and manufacturing, are afraid of somebody, are afraid of something. They know that there is a power somewhere so organized, so subtle, so watchful, so interlocked, so complete, so pervasive, that they had better not speak above their breath when they speak in condemnation of it." – attributed to President Woodrow Wilson

I Have Unwittingly Ruined My Country: "I am a most unhappy man. I have unwittingly ruined my country. A great industrial nation is controlled by its system of credit. Our system of credit is concentrated. The growth of the nation, therefore, and all our activities are in the hands of a few men. We have come to be one of the worst ruled, one of the most completely controlled and dominated governments in the civilized world. No longer a government by free opinion, no longer a government by conviction and the vote of the majority, but a government by the opinion and duress of a small group of dominant men." – attributed to Woodrow Wilson, 28th President of the United States, in The New Freedom: A Call for the Emancipation of the Generous Energies of a People, published in 1913 (source: http://voices.washingtonpost.com/the-trail/2007/08/15/leaving_las_vegas.html)

This Bill Puts The Government Into The Banking Business As Never Before In Our History: "Throughout

my public life I have supported all measures designed to take the Government out of the banking business. This bill puts the Government into the banking business as never before in our history. The powers vested in the Federal Reserve Board seem to me highly dangerous especially where there is political control of the Board. I should be sorry to hold stock in a bank subject to such dominations. The bill as it stands seems to me to open the way to a vast inflation of the currency. I had hoped to support this bill, but I cannot vote for it because it seems to me to contain features and to rest upon principles in the highest degree menacing to our prosperity, to stability in business, and to the general welfare of the people of the United States." -- Henry Cabot Lodge, December 17, 1913

An Invisible Government Which Is The True Ruling Power Of Our Country: "The conscious and intelligent manipulation of the organized habits and opinions of the (public) is an important element in democratic society. Those who manipulate this unseen mechanism of society constitute an invisible government which is the true ruling power of our country." -- attributed to Edward Bernays, nephew of Sigmund Freud, pioneer in the field of public relations and one of the first to attempt to manipulate public opinion using the psychology of the subconscious

The Invisible Government Which Like A Giant Octopus Sprawls Its Slimy Legs Over Our Cities States And Nation: "The real menace of our Republic is the invisible government which like a giant octopus sprawls its slimy legs over our cities states and nation. At the head is a small group of banking houses generally referred to as 'international bankers.' This little coterie... run our government for their own selfish ends. It operates under cover of a self-created screen... [and] seizes...our executive officers... legislative bodies... schools... courts... newspapers and every agency created for the public protection." -- attributed to John F. Hylan, Mayor of New

A Financial Element In The Large Centers Has Owned The Government Of The U.S. Since The Days Of Andrew Jackson: "The real truth of the matter is, as you and I know, that a financial element in the large centers has owned the government of the U.S. since the days of Andrew Jackson. History depicts Andrew Jackson as the last truly honorable and incorruptible American president." -- attributed to Franklin D. Roosevelt, 32nd President of the United States

By Consent Or By Conquest: "We shall have World Government, whether or not we like it. American Gestapo: “I never would have agreed to the formulation of the Central Intelligence Agency back in forty-seven, if I had known it would become the American Gestapo.” -- attributed to Harry S. Truman, 33rd President of the United States

A Bureaucratic Elite: "Today the path of total dictatorship in the United States can be laid by strictly legal means, unseen and unheard by the Congress, the President, or the people. Outwardly we have a Constitutional government. We have operating within our government and political system, another body representing another form of government -- a bureaucratic elite." -- attributed to Senator William Jenner, 1954

We Do Not Know Who Governs: "The true equation is democracy = government by world financiers... The main mark of modern governments is that we do not know who governs, de facto any more than de jure. We see the politician and not his backer; still less the backer of the backer; or what is most important of all, the banker of the backer. Enthroned above all, in a manner without parallel in all past, is the veiled prophet of finance, swaying all men living by a sort of magic, and delivering oracles in a language not understood [sic] of the people."— attributed to J.R.R. What They Strive For Would Inevitably Lead To Dictatorship: "The most powerful clique in these (CFR) groups have one objective in common: they want to bring about the surrender of the sovereignty and the national independence of the U.S. They want to end national boundaries and racial and ethnic loyalties supposedly to increase business and ensure world peace. What they strive for would inevitably lead to dictatorship and loss of freedoms by the people. The CFR was founded for "the purpose of promoting disarmament and submergence of U.S. sovereignty and national independence into an all-powerful one-world government." -- attributed to Harpers magazine, July 1958

Military-Industrial Complex: "In the councils of government, we must guard against the acquisition of unwarranted influence, whether sought or unsought, by the military-industrial complex. The potential for the disastrous rise of misplaced power exists and will persist." -- Dwight D. Eisenhower, 34th President of the United States

A Plot To Destroy The Americans' Freedom: "The high office of President has been used to foment a plot to destroy the Americans' freedom, and before I leave office I must inform the citizen of his plight." — attributed to attributed to John Fitzgerald Kennedy, 35th President of the United States

A Special Elite: "Every significant movement to destroy the American way of life has been directed and financed, in whole or in part, by tax-exempt organizations, which are entrenched in public opinion as benefactors of our society. Worst of all: this tremendous power and prestige are in the hands of what Rene Wormser calls a special elite – a group of eggheads... who neither understand nor respect the profit-motivated economic principles and the great political ideal of individual-freedom-under-limited-government which made our nation great." – Dan Smoot, The Invisible Government, The Dan Smoot Report, Inc., Dallas, Texas, 1962; page 167)

Exercises Controlling Influence: "I am convinced that the Council on Foreign Relations, together with a great number of other associated tax-exempt organizations, constitutes the invisible government which sets the major policies of the federal government; exercises controlling influence on governmental officials who implement the policies; and, through massive and skillful propaganda, influences Congress and the public to support the policies." – Dan Smoot, The Invisible Government, The Dan Smoot Report, Inc., Dallas, Texas, 1962; pages iii-iv)

A Few Sinister People Who Know Exactly What They Are Doing: "Claiming to believe in the high destiny of America as a world leader, our invisible government urges timid policies of appeasement and surrender which make America a world whipping-boy rather than a world leader. Claiming to believe in the dignity and worth of the human individual, the modern liberals who run our invisible government urge an ever-growing welfare state which is destroying individualism -- which has already so weakened the American sense of personal responsibility that crimes rates have increased 98 percent in our land during the past ten years. Why? Why do prominent Americans support programs which are so harmful?... Somewhere at the top of the pyramid in the invisible government are a few sinister people who know exactly what they are doing; they want America to become part of a worldwide socialist dictatorship..." -- Dan Smoot, The Invisible Government, The Dan Smoot Report, Inc., Dallas, Texas, 1962

Those Who Torment Us For Our Own Good: "Of all tyrannies, a tyranny sincerely exercised for the good of its victims may be the most oppressive. It would be better to live under robber barons than under omnipotent moral busybodies. The robber baron's cruelty may sometimes sleep, his cupidity may at some point be satiated; but those who torment us for our own good will torment us without end for they do so with the approval of their own conscience." — C. Irrefutable: "The case for government by elites is irrefutable... government by the people is possible but highly improbable." -- attributed to Senator William Fulbright, former chairman of the US Senate Foreign Relations Committee, stated at a 1963 symposium entitled The Elite and the Electorate - Is Government by the People Possible?

Largely Controlled The United States Government And Its Foreign Policy: "What are the goals of this small organization whose members exert such influence on the United States and the world? Since 1945, CFR members have largely controlled the United States government and its foreign policy... The writings and speeches of CFR members reveal that the failures of the West have not been accidents. Events since World War II have developed largely according to plan." -- John S. Stormer, None Dare Call It Treason, Liberty Bell Press, Florissant, MO, 1964; page 212

A Skillful, Coordinated Effort To Seize Control: "The Trilateral Commission is intended to be the vehicle for multinational consolidation of the commercial and banking interests by seizing control of the political government of the United States. The Trilateral Commission represents a skillful, coordinated effort to seize control and consolidate the four centers of power political, monetary, intellectual and ecclesiastical. What the Trilaterals truly intends is the creation of a worldwide economic power superior to the political governments of the nation-states involved... As managers and creators of the system, they will rule the future." -- attributed to U.S. Senator Barry Goldwater in his 1964 book, With No Apologies.

The Direct Benefit Of Financiers And The Indirect Injury Of All Other Economic Groups: "The powers of financial capitalism had another far reaching aim, nothing less than to create a world system of financial control in private hands able to dominate the political system of each country and the economy of the world as a whole. This system was to be controlled in a feudalist fashion by the central banks of the world acting in concert, by secret agreements, arrived at in frequent private meetings and conferences. The apex of the system was the Bank for International Settlements in Basle, Switzerland, a private bank owned and controlled by the worlds' central banks which were themselves private corporations. The growth of financial capitalism made possible a centralization of world economic control and use of this power for the direct benefit of financiers and the indirect injury of all other economic groups." -- Professor Carroll Quigley, Tragedy and Hope: A History of The World in Our Time (Macmillan Company, 1966)

The Invisible Hands Of A Plutocracy: "The government of the Western nations, whether monarchical or republican, had passed into the invisible hands of a plutocracy, international in power and grasp. It was, I venture to suggest, this semi-occult power which.... pushed the mass of the American people into the cauldron of World War I." — attributed to British military historian Major General J.F.C. Fuller

An International Anglophile Network: Bill Clinton mentor Carroll Quigley, in his 1966 book Tragedy and Hope: A History of the World in Our Time, confirmed,

“There does exist, and has existed for a generation, an international Anglophile network which operates, to some extent, in the way the Radical Right believes the Communists act.” His knowledge of this network came, he explains, as a result of 20 years of study as well as a two-year period in the early 1960s during which he was free to “examine its papers and secret records.”

The One-World Money Intervention And The United Nations Hoax: “Dedicated to young Americans -- May you benefit from observing how certain shadowy forces contrive to ruthlessly advance their own financial and ideological objectives at your expense. They select, then groom, and ultimately control many of our highest government officials. They plan the wars and through "foreign policy" arrange to set the stage for incidents to initiate hostilities. They overwork the word "Peace" to mislead you and create a plausible smoke screen in order to conceal their real operations. You can recognize who "they" are. Hence, I say, young Americans, be alerted-be more effective than my unsuspecting and bemused generation.. Sally-forth, defend and preserve for yourself and those who follow you our great heritage of freedom and liberty...

“Ponder this: If the all-powerful European-American money-power group decided that the time was right for them to tear down the price structure of stocks hither and yon, for a real worthwhile profit, a real "shearing", as it were, and to eliminate President Herbert Hoover in so doing, they would not dare to pick a Rothschild, a Sasoon, a Warburg, a Sieff, a Morgan, a Monteflore, a Schiff, or a Whitney to wield "the clippers." That not so delicate task, on the down side, must be handled by others, by a front detached, but nevertheless quite reliable. Therefore, what better front could be provided for their extensive stock operations on the short side than whistle up some "acceptable", aggressive Irishmen to be aided by others in leading the shearing of the public? Be that as it may, the operation was carried out with ruthless finesse and vigor. The destruction was enormous!..

“Basically, the U.N. is but a long-range, international-banking apparatus neatly set up for financial and economic profit by a small group of powerful One-World Revolutionaries, hungry for profit and power. Obviously, the real objectives of One-World Government leaders and their ever-close bankers, are most devout. They have now acquired full control of the money and credit machinery of the United States of America, via the creation and establishment of the privately owned Federal Reserve Bank. They now plan to uproot and to gradually destroy the Spiritual background of all peoples. Initially, Christianity is the prime target, then Judaism, then all other religions! That bleak program is absolutely necessary for them to complete, if possible, before they can reach godless power—aimed to benefit a few but to make assembly-line puppets out of us, the many. When you hear and read about the word peace, so often splashed about for political purposes by United Nations leaders, ask yourself just one question—whose peace? Every government and every individual has his own definition of what that word means. Often it is merely a vague image, erected to deftly mislead and confuse us...

“Often I felt there was something wrong with my thinking. The only trouble was that I didn't think sooner! For a long time I felt that FDR had developed many thoughts and ideas that were his own to benefit this country, the U.S.A. But, he didn't. Most of his thoughts, his political "ammunition", as it were, was carefully manufactured for him in advance by the CFR-One-World Money group. Brilliantly, with great gusto, like a fine piece of artillery, he exploded that prepared "ammunition" in the middle of an unsuspecting target, the American people—and thus paid off and retained his internationalist political support. Perhaps he copied Woodrow Wilson unduly, in that respect, and readily fell for the One-World Money intervention and the United Nations hoax. My feeling is that he accepted that support merely as a practical means to gain and retain for himself more personal and political power. Others have expressed their feelings in this area in words far better than I can. But, perhaps my loyalty to FDR had a strong root and was steadfast, my dismay arrived rather belatedly, along with clearer perception, but over a slow and tortuous route...

“May I express some words of caution against our falling for the implied messages from numerous public monuments and awards duly erected and handed-out, hither and yon, by agents of the Image-Makers to bestow honors upon their appointees, in order to fool present and future generations? A needed public monument for Woodrow Wilson is suggested to mark a most important event in December, 1913, when by an Act, he delivered a mis-informed Congress (meaning you and myself), into the awaiting clutches of the privately owned Federal Reserve Bank group with its powerful Board of Governors, making billions by printing our own money for a very small fee, and then charging us interest on our own credit! (It is an incredibly expensive operation for intelligent people to condone!)... However, the American people were considerably worse-off at the end of his political regime, in contrast to the status of his high-level backers and advisors, who became much fatter, far more powerful, having contrived successfully to further their own Global Goals in that span of time. – Curtis Dall, FDR's son-in-law, from his book, My Exploited Father-in-Law; Institute for Historical Review, Torrance, CA, 1968

Into A Servile Member State Of A One-World Dictatorship: “The Council on Foreign Relations is ‘the establishment.’ Not only does it have influence and power in key decision-making positions at the highest levels of government to apply pressure from above, but it also announces and uses individuals and groups to bring pressure from below, to justify the high level decisions for converting the U.S. from a sovereign Constitutional Republic into a servile member state of a one-world dictatorship." -- attributed to former Congressman John Rarick, 1971

Do I Mean Conspiracy? Yes I Do: "The drive of the Rockefellers and their allies is to create a one-world government combining super-capitalism and Communism under the same tent, all under their control.... Do I mean conspiracy? Yes I do. I am convinced there is such a plot, international in scope, generations old in planning, and incredibly evil in intent." -- attributed to Congressman Larry P. McDonald, 1976, killed in the Korean Airlines 747 that was shot down by the Soviets

Secret Steering Committee: "The planning of the U.N. can be traced to the 'secret steering committee' established by Secretary (of State Cordell) Hull in January 1943. All of the members of this secret committee, with the exception of Hull, a Tennessee politician, were members of the Council on Foreign Relations. They saw Hull regularly to plan, select, and guide the labors of the [State] Department's Advisory Committee. It was, in effect, the coordinating agency for all the State Department's postwar planning." -- attributed to Professors Laurence H. Shoup and William Minter, writing in their study of the

It Exists Even Though That Existence Is Stoutly Denied: "Those who formally rule take their signals and commands not from the electorate as a body, but from a small group of men. This group will be called the Establishment. It exists even though that existence is stoutly denied. It is one of the secrets of the American social order... A second secret is the fact that the existence of the Establishment -- the ruling class -- is not supposed to be discussed." -- attributed to Arthur S. Open World Dictatorship: "The interests behind the Bush Administration, such as the CFR, the Trilateral Commission -- founded by Brzezinski for David Rockefeller -- and the Bilderberg Group have prepared for and are now moving to implement open world dictatorship within the next five years." -- attributed to Dr. Johannes Koepl, former official of the German Ministry for Defense and adviser to NATO.

An International Police Force To Enforce The Edicts Of The New World Order: "The New World Order is a world that has a super-national authority to regulate world commerce and industry; an international organization that would control the production and consumption of oil; an international currency that would replace the dollar; a World Development Fund that would make funds available to free and Communist nations alike; and an international police force to enforce the edicts of the New World Order." -- attributed to former West German Chancellor, Willy Brandt, former chairman of the Fifth-Socialist International, who chaired the Brandt Commission in the late 1980s.

A New World Order: "We stand today at a unique and extraordinary moment. The crisis in the Persian Gulf, as grave as it is, also offers a rare opportunity to move toward an historic period of cooperation. Out of these troubled times, our fifth objective -- a new world order -- can emerge..." -- George H. W. Bush, President of the United States, addressing a joint session of the United States Congress, Washington D.C. on September 11, 1990

The Supranational Sovereignty Of An Intellectual Elite And World Bankers Is Surely Preferable: "We are grateful to The Washington Post, The New York Times, Time Magazine and other great publications whose directors have attended our meetings and respected their promises of discretion for almost forty years. It would have been impossible for us to develop our plan for the world if we had been subject to the bright lights of publicity during those years. But, the work is now much more sophisticated and prepared to march towards a world government. The supranational sovereignty of an intellectual elite and world bankers is surely preferable to the national auto-determination practiced in past centuries." – attributed to David Rockefeller, founder of the Trilateral Commission, in an address to a meeting of The Trilateral Commission, in June, 1991

Tomorrow They Will Be Grateful: "Today, Americans would be outraged if U.N. troops entered Los Angeles to restore order; tomorrow they will be grateful. This is especially true if they were told there was an outside threat from beyond, whether real or promulgated, that threatened our very existence. It is then that all peoples of the world will plead with world leaders to deliver them from this evil. The one thing every man

Promoting The Belief That It Does Not Exist: "The American oligarchy spares no pains in promoting the belief that it does not exist, but the success of its disappearing act depends on equally strenuous efforts on the part of an American public anxious to believe in egalitarian fictions and unwilling to see what is hidden in plain sight." — Michael Lind, To Have and to Have Not, in Harper's Magazine, June, 1995

A Small Clique Of The Wealthy Elite Exercise Unprecedented Conspiratorial Control Over Much Of The World's Business And Government: "For the average citizen it is often difficult to conceive how a handful of people could control a large nation or the whole world. Yet, anyone who has lived in a small town easily understands that in each community of people there exists a pecking order of power." Six pages later he concludes, "Based on the evidence available today, there can be little doubt that a small clique of the wealthy elite exercise unprecedented conspiratorial control over much of the world's business and government, despite denials from the very media they own." -- Jim Marrs, Alien Agenda (HarperCollins, page 582)

I Stand Guilty, And I Am Proud Of It: "For more than a century ideological extremists at either end of the political spectrum have seized upon well-publicized incidents ... to attack the Rockefeller family for the inordinate influence they claim we wield over American political and economic institutions. Some even believe we are part of a secret cabal working against the best interests of the United States, characterizing my family and me as 'internationalists' and of conspiring with others around the world to build a more integrated global political and economic structure - one world, if you will. If that's the charge, I stand guilty, and I am proud of it." -- attributed to David Rockefeller, writing in his autobiography, Memoirs (2002, Random House publishers, page 405)

Bill Of Wrongs: "... as it (the Patriot Act) removes our Bill of Rights it's creating a kind of 'Bill of Wrongs' that the U.S. can now do to other people... The Richest People In The World: "Whether you call them the Illuminati, the Bilderbergers, the Trilateral Commission, or the Council on Foreign Relations, the name is irrelevant. The 'secret government' is basically made up of the richest people in the world. There are a few thousand of them, and they have been controlling our so-called governments for a long time. They control who gets elected, when and where; they control when there is a war and when there isn't. They control planetary food shortages and whether a country's currency is inflated or deflated. All these things are dominated completely by these people." -- Bob Frissell, Nothing in This Book is True, But It's Exactly How Things Are (Frog Books, Berkeley, CA, 2009, page 205)

An Immense, Tutelary Power: Tocqueville wrote in Democracy in America (pages 187-188): "Over these (citizens) is elevated an immense, tutelary power, which takes sole charge of assuring their enjoyment and of watching over their fate. It is absolute, attentive to detail, regular, provident, and gentle... It works willingly for their happiness, but it wishes to be the only agent and the sole arbiter of that happiness. It provides for their security, foresees and supplies their needs, guides them in their principal affairs, directs their testaments, divides their inheritances... In this fashion, every day, it renders the employment of free will less useful and more rare; it confines the action of the will within a smaller space and bit by bit it steals from each citizen the use of that which is his own. Equality has prepared men for all of these things: it has disposed them to put up with them and often even to regard them as a benefit."
